I starting at the beginning of my folder and sending things I think you might like. I have an original copy of James McMichael's will but don't think it would send a good copy. Included is my transcription of it. Will send more as time permits. Some of this is what we have found, some has been sent to me from other cousins we've been in contact with. Will you have your computer with you when you go to Florida?

We invite you to visit
Shelby County Kentucky and discover what dreams are made of...

a place in the country.

REGIONAL cuisine

Historic Old Stone Inn

There's a little something for everyone in Shelby County. Whether your idea of a good time is shopping, visiting historical sites, golfing, boating , fishing, or just enjoying great scenery, Kentucky's Country Home has it all!

History buffs won't want to miss the Old Stone Inn in Simpsonville, where Andrew Jackson once stayed, and which still bears the bullet holes from a Civil War skirmish. Simpsonville is also the home of the Whitney M. Young Jr. Institute. Young gained international prominence as the Executive Director of the National Urban League. Other sites of interest in Shelby County include the entire downtown area, which is listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the Claudia Sanders Dinner House (adjacent to Blackwood Hall, this is the former home of Harland Sanders and his wife, Claudia) and the Science Hill Preparatory School for Young Ladies which now houses a world-renowned Wakefield-Scearce antique and gift gallery.

For short day trips, Shelby County is centrally located. Frankfort, Bardstown, Harrodsburg / Shakertown - Pleasant Hill and Danville are all within a short distance. Louisville, with its Locust Grove, Farmington, Churchill Downs, Louisville Zoo, Belle of Louisville, J.B. Speed Art Museum, Museum of Natural History and Science, Kentucky Center for the Arts and more, is less than 45 minutes away. For those wanting to spend a couple of days in Kentucky's Country Home, Shelby County offers a number of lodging and dining establishments for you to enjoy.

ANTIQUES

Away from it all...but not out of your way!

Shelby County offers some of the region's most unique shopping experiences. In Shelbyville, you'll discover Wakefield-Scearce Galleries, a world-renowned antique and gift gallery, as well as several downtown antique malls offering browsers hours of unlimited shopping. Bargains also abound in Shelbyville as specialty shops grace most downtown corners and curves. In Simpsonville, you'll find the Shelby County Flea Market. It is the regions largest, year-round indoor flea market.

Main Street Shelbyville

After all that shopping, you'll want to relax and enjoy the many varieties of cuisine available in Shelby County. From formal dining to down-home cooking you're sure to find a taste that pleases.

HORSES

American Saddlebred Horses

Shelby County is known as the "Saddlebred Horse Capital of the World." Acres and acres of rolling hills, black fences and horses of many breeds dot the landscape surrounding Shelbyville. For the equine enthusiast, Shelby County offers some of the most exciting competitions in the nation. The Shelbyville Horse Show, as well as many other horse shows throughout the year, all make for a lot of "purebred" fun.

Weissinger Hills Golf Course

OUTDOOR sports

For the sportsperson, a year-round aquatic center, tennis courts and golf courses provide wonderful recreational opportunities. Shelby County's four golf courses are among the finest in Kentucky. Guist Creek Lake offers camping, boating, fishing and skiing. And Taylorsville Lake is just minutes away.

The Kentucky Dairy Festival

FESTIVALS

Festivals and special events are held year-round in Shelby County. We play host to the annual Dogwood Festival in April, the Kentucky Dairy Festival and Antique Farm Machinery Show in June, the County Fair in mid-July and the Celebration of Lights Holiday Festival. Other cultural events are held at the Dr. A. L. Birch Memorial Amphitheater at Clear Creek Park.

Shelby County also boasts an award-winning Community Theatre which produces a number of concerts, plays and musicals throughout the year.

Deed Book B p. 294

Robt. McMichael to T. E. Jones February 3, 1833

Sold.....land and farm whereon I now live containing 230 acres with all the appertenances thereunto belonging as anywise pertaining. Also one negroe woman named Ann and her two children one named Mary and the other named Emily. Also my wagon and team consisting of six horses with all their appertenances. Also six beds with all their furniture together with all my household and kitchen furniture. Also ten head of cattle and thirty head of sheep and forty head of hogs for and in consideration of the sum of one thousand dollars to me in hand paid. The receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged. The simple meaning and plain understanding of the above obligation is this. That the said Robert McMichael has this day borrowed of the S. E. Jones of Versailles one thousand dollars for which the said McMichael agrees to deliver in the town of Versailles two hundred fifty Cord of Merchantable Tan Bark to be delivered within two years from the first day of October next. And it the McMichael delivers the above compliment of bark within the above given time as refund the one thousand dollars with legal interest from the day of _____ the above obligation is to be void. Otherwise to remain in full force and virtue according to law.

In the name of God, Amen. I, Robt. McMichael, of the County of Anderson and State of KY, do make this my last will and testament, revoking all others. First: I constitate and appoint my three sons-in-law viz. Joseph Griffy, John Griffy and Crayton Ledridge, my executors to adjust all my estate. Second: I will and bequeath unto my dear wife, Rachel McMichael, all my estate, real and personal during her life, and at her death to be equally divided between all my children except those herein after provided for. Third: I have taken my son James' children to try to raise and if they take after their mother, I may look for a hard time. However, if they remain with their grandmother McMichael while she lives or they become of age, I will them one childs' part of my estate provided they treat her with respect and obedience. If they do not, they shall have no part in my estate. Fourth: If there is anything coming to my son, Greenberry, in the final distribution of my property, I will it to his children or to him in trust for them. Fifth: It is my will and desire that my children settle between themselves what I have charged them with in my own handnite(?). Lastly: I return my soul to God who gave it and resign my body to the grave at his call in hope of a glorious resurrection to eternal life through the merits of my redeemer. In Testimony whereof, I have set my hand and seal this the fifteenth day of September, 1954.
